

Why honor or memorial books?

Honor and memorial books are a lasting gift in support of literacy that recognize, celebrate, and share your loved one's passions and interests.

Your gift both recognizes how much you care about a special person, and helps people change their lives through reading.

How to give an honor or memorial book:

Complete the form included in this brochure and returned it to the circulation desk with your donation.

If you would prefer to complete your donation online, please contact us at library@huntingdonlibrary.org and we will send you more information on making your gift.

Please complete all the information as it helps us fulfill your request quickly and accurately.

Once the form is returned to us, we will purchase an item or items in honor or memory of your loved one.

Once the item arrived, it will be processed and a bookplate noting your gift and the recipient will be placed inside.

Can I request a specific title for my gift?

We do our best to match honor and memorial contribution titles to hobbies and topics that interest the honoree. We try, but are not always able, to accommodate specific title requests. If you are interested in a specific title, please contact library@huntingdonlibrary.org to discuss your request.

How long will it take for the item to be available at the library ?

Depending on availability, the item should be on the shelf in approximately two to four weeks.

Will I be notified when my gift is processed?

If you would like to be notified, please provide your name and address on the form.

Will the honoree be notified that a gift was made?

We will be send a note regarding your gift to the name and address you specify on the form.
